2. You have a right to be represented by an attorney. If you want an attorney and cannot afford one and are at risk of being jailed for contempt, the Court will appoint an attorney to represent you. You may have to pay part of the cost of an attorney's services, if the Court appoints one for you and decides you can pay.
 3. Any responsive pleadings you wish to present to the Court must be served on the other party and filed with the Court not later than five (5) days before the scheduled hearing, inclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The Court may in its discretion disregard any responsive pleadings served and filed less than five (5) days before such hearing, and rule on the Motion or matter in question. If you want to raise new issues at the hearing the other party has scheduled, your papers raising new issues must be served on the other party and filed with the Court not later than ten (10) days before the scheduled hearing.
 4. The ability to pay is a crucial issue in a contempt proceeding. A Parenting / Financial Disclosure Statement form for submitting ability to pay information is available for use in responding to contempt allegations. The Parenting / Financial Disclosure Statement form should be served and filed with the court at or before the contempt hearing. Court forms are available at the Court Administrator's Office or at www.mncourts.gov/forms.
 5. The parties are hereby restrained from annoying, molesting, or interfering with the other in any manner whatsoever during the pendency of this proceeding, in or out of the home, in person, by agent or by telephone.
 6. Failure to appear at the scheduled hearing may result in the issuance of a bench warrant for your arrest.
